

Rutgers' 200th Birthday

Rutgers, The State University, which began as a struggling colonial college before the Revolution, currently is celebrating its Bicentennial Anniversary. This fall, many events are planned to highlight the Birthday celebration.

Important dates are September 22, when a major convocation, with representatives from colleges throughout the world and national figures, will be held; November 10, Charter Day, when Rutgers Night will be celebrated all around the Globe; and the October 15 and 22 football games, against Army and Columbia. The Columbia game will be Homecoming and will be part of a "Salute to Colonel Henry (Rutgers), the Columbia alumnus whose name Rutgers bears. A Columbia-Rutgers crew race and a fireworks display will follow the game. The Army game will feature the first local appearance of the entire Cadet Corps.

Rutgers was founded in 1766 by Dutch pioneers and originally was called Queens College under a charter from King George III of England. The young college's existence was threatened by the Revolution, but growth followed that conflict, just as unprecedented expansion has been experienced since the last World War.

Rutgers was given its present name in 1825, after generous gifts had been received from Colonel Rutgers, a New York philanthropist. Forty years later it was designated the Land Grant College of New Jersey, the liberal arts course was enlarged, and courses leading to bachelor degrees in agriculture and engineering were added.

In 1902 a ceramics department was established, New Jersey College for Women with its own New Brunswick campus, was founded in 1918; the School of Education added in 1923; and in 1925 the Extension Division for non-degree education and the School of Journalism were established. The College of Pharmacy was added in 1927, University College, degree-granting evening division, was established in 1934, and Newark University was merged with Rutgers in 1946. In 1945, the State Legislature brought all divisions of Rutgers within the designation of the State University of New Jersey. In 1950, an act of the State Legislature incorporated the College of South Jersey in Camden, including a two-year liberal arts college and a law school, into the State University as the Rutgers College of South Jersey. The liberal arts college has since expanded to a four-year curriculum. In April, 1955, N.J.C. was renamed Douglass College. In 1956, under a reorganization program, the University was officially designated, Rutgers, The State University, and came under the management of an 11-man Board of Governors.

Rutgers has grown from about 3,000 students in 1957 to double that now. The future, which includes growth at Livingston College, formerly Camp Kilmer, is aimed at ever-increasing service to the State of New Jersey.

The Rutgers Coaching Staff

John F. Bateman, Head Coach

BEGINNING his seventh season at Rutgers, John Bateman has led the Scarlet to a .618 winning percentage, with 34 wins in 55 games. Bateman's record includes the only undefeated season in the 97 years of Rutgers football—a 9-0 mark in 1961.

Bateman, who was an assistant at Columbia under Lou Little for 11 years and at Penn under Steve Sebo from 1957 through 1959, is a native New Jerseyan. He attended Central High and St. Benedict's prep in Newark before entering Columbia in 1934. He played guard under Little at Columbia, captaining the 1937 Lion eleven. He returned to Columbia as an assistant in 1946 after three years in the Navy and three years as coach at Middletown, N. Y., High School.

The holder of a master's degree in political science and a doctorate in education from Columbia, Dr. Bateman is Rutgers' 15th football coach since 1900. He and his wife have three sons. They live in Highland Park.

Dewayne "Dewey" King, Defensive Coach

A RENOWNED EXPERT on pass defense, Dewey King is in his seventh season at Rutgers. A graduate of the University of North Dakota, his staff responsibility is with the defense. A native of Cando, N. D., King was an assistant at Michigan State before serving from 1954 through 1959 as a Penn assistant under Steve Sebo. King, who lives in New Brunswick with his wife and two sons came to Rutgers with Bateman, who was a fellow assistant at Penn.

A book about pass defense by King, "Jericho," was published in 1963.

Frank Burns, Offensive Coach

RUTGERS' ALL-TIME great quarterback, Frank Burns returned to Rutgers in 1961 after four years at Chatham, N. J., High School. Burns twice previously served Rutgers, first as freshman coach and later as varsity backfield coach. He also was head coach at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. A native of Roselle Park, Burns was an all-east quarterback and an outstanding catcher on the baseball team as an undergraduate. Burns, whose chief assignment is coaching the offense backfield, lives in Berkeley Heights with his wife and three children.

Robert Naso, Assistant Coach

A 1959 RUTGERS graduate, Bob Naso excelled in football and lacrosse as a player and in 1961-62 became varsity lacrosse coach and freshman football coach for his alma mater. He was assistant lacrosse coach for two years and in 1959 coached the 150-pound football team. When Warren Schmakel accepted the head coaching assignment at Boston U., Naso was promoted to the varsity staff as defensive line coach. Naso's five-year lacrosse record is 36-24. Bob and his wife, Carole, live in New Brunswick. They have two daughters.

Donald Heilman, Assistant Coach

THE HEAD COACH at Kutztown State College the last six years, Don Heilman is the newest member of the Rutgers staff, replacing Matt Bolger who is devoting his full energies to a year-round baseball program. Heilman is a graduate of West Chester State, where he was a center. His experience includes eight years in the high school ranks and two as a college assistant. Heilman and his wife, Nancy Jane, have six children.

William J. Speranza, Freshman Coach

NOW IN HIS third year on the Rutgers football staff, Bill Speranza quarterbacked (with Sam Mudie) the undefeated Rutgers eleven of 1961. In his three varsity football seasons, Speranza participated on teams which won 23 of 27 games. Speranza, who also won three letters as a catcher-outfielder in baseball, was an assistant football coach at Liberty High, Bethlehem, Pa., in 1962 and 1963 before joining Bateman's staff last year. His Frosh team was 5-0 last year.

Rutgers Athletic Administration

Albert W. Twitchell, Director of Athletics

AFTER A distinguished coaching career which terminated in 1961, Albert W. Twitchell succeeded Harry J. Rockafeller as director of athletics at Rutgers. A 1935 graduate of the University, Twitchell has been a member of the staff since 1947 as a coach and administrator.

Twitchell won six varsity letters as an undergraduate, captaining the 1934 football team as center and winning the Donald Leslie Coursen trophy, highest individual athletic award given at the University.

A native of Dedham, Mass., he began his coaching career at North Plainfield, N. J., High School. He went to Sewanhaka High School in 1937, served later as assistant football coach at Hofstra College, then returned to Sewanhaka as head coach of football and lacrosse until 1947.

He coached sub-varsity football and freshman lacrosse at Rutgers until he became varsity line coach in 1949 and succeeded his own former coach, Fred Fitch, as varsity lacrosse mentor in 1950. During his 12 seasons as lacrosse coach, his teams won 90 games, lost 31 and tied one. He became assistant to the director of athletics in 1952, later was named assistant director.

Twitchell is past president of the U. S. Lacrosse Coaches Assn. and the Inter-collegiate Lacrosse Assn. He coached the North all-star team in 1953, was named "lacrosse coach of the year" in 1958 and has served eastern athletics and lacrosse, in particular, in many ways since becoming an Administrator.

Kenneth G. Germann, Assistant Director

IN HIS sixth year on the Rutgers staff, Ken Germann is a veteran coach and administrator. A 1943 graduate of Columbia University, he was an outstanding football and basketball player as an undergraduate. A Marine Corps veteran, he spent 11 years as director of athletics and football coach at Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N. Y. He was freshman football coach at Columbia from 1957 to 1960. Germann was one of the East's top basketball and lacrosse officials until retiring in 1961. He holds a master's degree from Columbia Teachers College. He coaches the 150-pound football team, which has an 18-12 mark under his direction.

Otto H. Hill, Business Manager

PROMOTED TO the newly-created position of business manager of athletics in 1961, Otto Hill has been a member of the Rutgers staff since 1947. A 1942 graduate of Rutgers, he served in the Army and Air Force during World War II, returning to earn his master's degree in 1947. He coached junior varsity and freshman football, moving up to the varsity as end coach in 1953, a post he held through 1955. He was freshman swimming coach from 1947 until 1956, when he succeeded the late Jim Reilly as varsity swimming coach. He relinquished that post to take over his present assignment and direct the University's aquatics program.

Frederick E. Gruninger, Assistant to the Director

FRED GRUNINGER, who joined the Rutgers staff in 1959, served his first five years in the Office of Alumni Relations. He was associate director before moving over to become Al Twitchell's assistant in July, 1964. He also is coach of the golf team which has won 30 of 43 meets under his guidance. Gruninger is a 1953 Rutgers alumnus.

The Outlook — 1966

John Bateman is neither optimistic nor pessimistic about the 1966 football season. He simply has adopted a "let's wait and see" philosophy.

The reason is easy to understand. Bateman can point to some strengths and cry about some weaknesses, but until a few weeks of pre-season training are past and the scrimmage against Cornell is history, the Rutgers coach won't have a good idea how to evaluate his squad's potential.

"We have some good veterans, a lot of question marks and what seems to be a good class of sophomores. They appear to be 'hitters.' If they are, they'll play early. Until I see more, however, there's not much else to say."

Of overriding concern to Bateman is the physical condition of seven backs who were injured last year. Specifically, there are running backs Don Riesett, Rich Capria, Ralf Stegmann and Larry Gallin, and defensive backs Jack Prigger, Sid Rhines and Denny McGorry.

Without these fellows in good shape last year, Rutgers struggled. It's offense was handicapped and defensive adjustments were limited. In some cases, the athletes have had operations to correct their problems. Until these players have been "hit," it will be impossible to judge their value.

STRONG POINTS

If most of them come through with passing grades, Rutgers will have an adequate supply of running backs, with average or better ability. Another reasonably secure position is defensive end. Also, the Scarlet has topflight talent at split end (Jack Emmer), right tackle (Ron Kenny) and linebacker (Bob Schroeder). All three could be among the best in the East at their positions. Sam Brown, 27, returns at defensive tackle and the Marine veteran could be an inspiration to his mates.

Jim Dulin, a place kicker, could be a key figure. He gave promise of having good range and accuracy last year and with improvement could give the Scarlet a scoring threat from about 35 yards out.

The chief problems are:

1. Offensive line;
2. Defensive backfield;
3. Quarterback.

There is great interest, of course, in the quarterback job. It is the key position in the offense and more than likely will determine whether or not the Bicentennial Anniversary season will be a winning one.

ECKERT TOP CANDIDATE

The number one candidate is Fred Eckert, who spent about two-thirds of 1965 as the starter. He was a hero with a last-minute TD pass against Lehigh and had an excellent game against Army. The hope is that 1965's experience will enable him to produce consistently.

Behind Eckert will be: Mike Greaves, a junior, who passes well; Dave Kencson, a sophomore, who is big, strong and a good passer; Pete Savino, a sophomore, who is the halfback type, running well; and Bill Regan, who is a senior and very much a dark horse.

In the offensive line, there are no established players beyond Emmer and Kenny. Some of the paper first stringers are lettermen, but none has yet proved himself.

As for defensive backs, only Lou Tepper, a corner back, returns. The other probable first stringers are jayvee graduates. Middle guard and one of the defensive tackle posts also are open.

Without benefit of spring practice, Bateman's chief handicap is spotting the newcomers on offense and defense so as to come up with two capable units. Until these combines are tested on the field, any discussion of team strength is purely guesswork.

"We're an unknown quantity," Bateman said. "I hope we can succeed, but I don't want to raise false hopes. We'll just have to 'wait and see.'"

The Leading Scarlet Knights

Ends

GARY BENKE, senior. A jayvee performer the past two years, Gary will have a chance this fall as a backup defensive player or perhaps at tight end . . . His brother, Paul, now a doctor, played for Scarlet 1958-60 . . . Was basketball standout at Belvidere High . . . Biological Sciences student, hoping for Medical school.

DENNIS DUTCH, sophomore. Dennis played exclusively on defense for last season's undefeated freshman eleven . . . He was a regular and is labeled a "prospect" . . . At Monongahela (Pa.) High, he also competed in track . . . Student in College of Arts and Sciences.

JACK EMMER, senior. Jack has the ability to become one of Scarlet's best all-time receivers . . . Was needed at safety last year and split playing time, getting five interceptions, 13 catches, but will play only offense in '66 . . . Has 35 catches for 457 yards thus far . . . Also standout in lacrosse on defense, where he is 1966 captain-elect . . . Mineola, N. Y., High graduate, Physical Education major.

JIM HIGGINS, junior. After playing fullback in high school (Watchung Regional) and as a freshman, Jim did his basic training at end last fall . . . He ranks first at the blocking end post on the pre-season depth chart . . . Studying Landscape Architecture, he hopes to attend graduate school.

SCOTT LEWENDON, junior. Scott made the difficult transition from freshman to varsity ball last fall, playing the entire season as a first unit defensive end . . . Building on 1965 experience, he should be one of leading players on squad . . . Was discuss record-holder at Plainfield High School . . . Is student of Landscape Architecture.

JOHN POLLOCK, sophomore. John was the best pass-catching end on the freshman team last fall and could well be the back-up man to Jack Emmer. He caught three touchdown passes and also played defensive halfback . . . Was reserve in freshman basketball . . . Was three-sport star at Wilbraham Academy . . . Studying Chemical Engineering.

HARRY SUNDIK, junior. Harry served his apprenticeship with the junior varsity last fall and played on the kicking teams with the varsity . . . He could earn a varsity spot at tight end offensively or on defense . . . At Ansonia, Conn., High School he also played basketball . . . Majoring in Economics.

GARTH WEBER, senior. Garth has played just about every minute on defense the last two years, starting from the Princeton opener in 1964 when he was a last-minute fill-in for the injured Jim Hackett . . . Has been a regular midfielder in lacrosse . . . Graduate of Manhasset (N. Y.) High . . . Majoring in Sociology, hopes to attend graduate school.

Tackles

SAMPSON BROWN, senior. After eight years away from football, Sampson has gained the respect and admiration of his teammates by fighting back into top shape and winning a regular defensive spot. Now 27, Sampson is a Marine veteran . . . A Physical Education student, he plans to teach and coach upon graduation . . . Was a three-sport athlete at Rahway High School.

ALAN D'ELIA, sophomore. Alan is one of several big sophomores who are being counted on to plug the gaps at tackle . . . He played only on defense as a freshman, but his varsity status is not yet settled . . . Was "MVP" in basketball at Springfield (Ill.) High School . . . Enrolled in Liberal Arts program.

MARTY FRANKIEWICZ, junior. A letter-winner in 1965, Marty spent time at offensive left guard and left tackle, with the latter more likely his permanent station for '66 . . . He moved up to first string duty after early-season jayvee service . . . Graduate of Elyria (O.) High . . . Civil Engineering student.

MAURICE HILL, sophomore. The smallest of the freshman tackles last year, Moe Hill nevertheless won a regular job and is highly-rated . . . He is the grandson of Frank Hill, late Rutgers basketball coach . . . His father (same name) competed in basketball and track for the Scarlet . . . Is slotted for offensive duty . . . Majoring in Biological Sciences.

RONALD KENNY, senior. Ron is one of the best blocking tackles in the East, if not anywhere . . . Exceptional speed and mastery of techniques give him an edge over most opponents . . . Has played every game on offense the last two seasons . . . His twin, Bob, is Rutgers ace baseball pitcher . . . Graduate of Northern Valley Regional . . . History major, hopes to attend law school.

RICH KOPROWSKI, sophomore. A regular on the all-winning freshman team, Rich probably will be one of the top candidates for vacated defensive tackle position . . . Graduate of Benedictine High, Cleveland, where he also competed in basketball and golf . . . Enrolled in College of Engineering.

DAVE ZIMMERMAN, sophomore. Elected honorary co-captain by his mates at the conclusion of the freshman season last fall, Dave probably was the best two-way tackle and stands excellent chance to win starting job on offense . . . Was captain at Mt. Herman School, lives in York, Pa. . . . Catcher in frosh baseball . . . Enrolled in Liberal Arts program.

Guards

JOHN ALLEN, junior. A starter on offense at the outset last year, John later shifted to middle guard, but probably will return to the former assignment . . . He regained his conditioning in '65 after a year away from football . . . Member of Rugby club . . . Graduate of Hingham, Mass., High . . . Political Science student.

RICHARD BING, sophomore. Although sidelined for three games by an injury, Bing made a good freshman impression and is in the picture this fall . . . He made the Group I all-state team at Emerson High . . . Is in the Physics Education curriculum.

ALAN GREENBERG, sophomore. Ticketed for offensive duty, Alan was a freshman regular and excels as a blocker . . . Has quickness despite his 5-9, 200-pound statistics . . . Earned state honors at Dayton Regional High . . . Enrolled in Liberal Arts curriculum, hopes to become teacher.

JOHN LIDDY, senior. Jack, whose father was football-baseball Rutgers great, had occasional starting assignment on offense last year, also worked at linebacker with defensive platoon . . . Is small for blocking, but has natural defensive sense . . . Member wrestling team . . . Graduate Fork Union Military Academy . . . Major in Physical Education.

JOSEPH URBANICK, junior. After picking up vital experience in jayvee ball, Joe probably will get the first crack at middle guard, the job filled so well the last two years by Tom Connelly . . . Was top frosh guard in '64 . . . Is graduate of Euclid (O.) High . . . In College of Arts and Sciences.

Centers

CHARLES BURGESS, junior. This will be the first varsity season for Burgess, who was out of football last year after playing regularly for '64 frosh . . . Competed in track as well as football at Scotch Plains-Fanwood High . . . Student in Agricultural Economics.

MICHAEL KOHUT, sophomore. Mike was the number one frosh center last fall and played middle guard on defense. He appears to be a leading candidate to snap the ball . . . Graduate of Swissvale (Pa.) High . . . Student in College of Agriculture and Environmental Science.

WALTER STASIAK, senior. Walt has been the number two offensive center the last two years, now has an opportunity to move up a notch if he can beat off the competition . . . Wrestled and played football at Passaic Valley High . . . Majoring in History.

Quarterbacks

FRED ECKERT, senior. If Fred can do consistently what he did last year against Army—pass, run and call plays with authority—he will be the Scarlet's quarterback . . . With a year's experience, he could be ready to take charge . . . Has strong arm, but has been erratic . . . Has displayed ability to move the team . . . Graduate of Worcester Academy . . . Studying Agricultural Economics.

MIKE GREAVES, junior. The regular frosh quarterback in 1964, Mike saw very brief varsity service last fall, playing mostly with the junior varsity . . . Is good passer, not much of running threat . . . May handle punting chores . . . Levittown Memorial (N. Y.) graduate . . . Studying Agricultural Economics.

DAVE KENSON, sophomore. A fine all-around athlete from Parma, Ohio, Dave shared the freshman quarterbacking honors with Pete Savino last year . . . Was better passer of the two, threw three TD passes . . . Rated an excellent ball handler . . . Is big and strong, will be in varsity picture . . . Student in Arts and Sciences.

PETE SAVINO, sophomore. Whereas Kenson was the better passer, Savino excelled as a running quarterback for Bill Speranza's undefeated freshmen . . . An inspiring leader, Pete also did well on defense . . . He is the halfback type, should excel at the running pass . . . Played under former Rutgers quarterback Bill Gatyas at Perth Amboy . . . Business Administration student.

Offensive Backs

JIM BAKER, junior. A wingback, Jim had the Scarlet's most spectacular run last year, carrying a kickoff 95 yards for a TD against Holy Cross . . . Legitimate open field threat, good pass receiver, has ample speed . . . Was "MVP" in football and baseball at Bridgton Academy . . . Physical Education student.

JOE CAMPASSI, sophomore. As a transfer to Rutgers, Joe was ineligible to compete last fall, but worked out regularly and impressed with his blocking and running from fullback . . . He is important to team in light of injuries suffered last year by Capria and Riesett . . . Graduate of Maple Heights (O.) High . . . Student in College of Agriculture.

RICH CAPRIA, senior. Rich began 1965 as the number one fullback and is the leading returning ground gainer, but an ankle injury took the sting out of his running and blocking . . . Had great windup game against Colgate, hopes to pick up where he left off . . . Was three-sport standout at Levittown, N. Y., Memorial . . . Electrical Engineering student.

LARRY GALLIN, senior. Another of 1965's many injured players, Larry is hoping knee problems are behind him . . . An impressive runner from halfback, he also can play defense and may be a swing man . . . Is married, has a son . . . Graduate of Buffalo's Riverside High . . . Agricultural Business student.

BRYANT MITCHELL, sophomore. Just where and how soon Bryant's breakaway ability will be utilized depends on pre-season training . . . Had three TD runs of over 40 yards for frosh, could give offense a lift . . . Will be used either at left halfback or wingback . . . Attended Solebury School, New Hope, Pa. . . . Liberal Arts student.

DON RIESETT, junior. A knee operation over the winter hopefully has cured cartilage problem which just about ruined Don's sophomore year . . . Despite handicap, he did some solid running at fullback . . . If healthy, he can be Scarlet's best power back . . . Graduate of Calvert Hall (Towson, Md.) . . . Student in Arts and Sciences.

RALF STEGMANN, senior. Illness early and injuries late made 1965 a year to forget for Ralf, who can run, throw, and catch and knows what to do when he has the ball . . . Will be number one left halfback at opening of camp . . . Former Bergen County athlete, now living in Bardonia, N. Y. . . . Student in Liberal Arts.

Defensive Backs—Linebackers

CHARLES BOWERS, sophomore. A very fleet, aggressive player, Chuck can be either a linebacker or cornerman or pulling guard . . . Was All-Maryland at Baltimore City College in football and lacrosse . . . Played frosh lacrosse last spring . . . Majoring in Agricultural Research, may shift to a pre-medical curriculum.

BOB HIGGINS, junior. Injuries to others gave Bob a chance to break in to the linebacking scene last fall . . . Is former fullback and throws the shot in track . . . Rated number one at an inside line-backer post . . . Graduate of Bergen Catholic . . . History major.

JAMES JULIAN, sophomore. Although he has been away from football since 1964, Jim is considered a strong candidate for action as a linebacker . . . Was standout athlete at Clairton, Pa., High . . . Is majoring in History.

DENNY McGORRY, senior. Denny has been on reserve the last two years, now is getting a chance at halfback . . . Although on the small side, he has good speed and is a student of defensive play . . . Graduate of Allentown, Pa., Catholic . . . Biological Sciences student, hopes to attend Dental School.

CHARLEY MUDIE, senior. An offensive halfback the last two years, Charley will continue to play at wingback, but there is good chance his skills will be utilized on defense, too . . . Excellent pass catcher, with 38 the past two years . . . Earned honorable mention All-American as lacrosse midfielder last spring, is 1967 co-captain elect . . . Third Mudie brother to play for Rutgers . . . Bensalem (Pa.) High graduate . . . Majoring in Physical Education.

SID RHINES, junior. Injured much of last fall, Sid is quick and agile, is former standout high jumper, has the makings of top deep back . . . A little light to play offense steadily, but could do some running, too . . . Was "All-Everything" at Summit High . . . Physical Education student.

JACK PRIGGER, junior. Results of an off-season operation to correct a knee problem must be awaited, but if everything is OK, Jack will be the safetyman . . . He is a natural ball hawk, was ready to step in last year when injury struck . . . Runs back punts well . . . Penns Grove High graduate . . . Student in Liberal Arts.

BOB SCHROEDER, senior. If there's a key man to the Rutgers defense, it's Schroeder . . . The defensive signal-caller, he is being counted on to lead and perform with best linebackers in the East . . . Has all the equipment necessary to rank with anyone . . . Also may see some offensive time at center, especially on snapping for punts . . . Lindenhurst, N. Y., High graduate . . . Majoring in Agricultural Business.

LOU TEPPER, senior. Lou came through well last year, his first as a varsity regular, and could be one of the defensive leaders from his defensive fullback post . . . Was somewhat tense much of '65, but experience should give him confidence . . . Intercepted three passes . . . Graduate of Derry Area High (Pa.) . . . Physical Education student.

Kicker

LOREN (Jim) DULIN, junior. Jim asked for a chance in mid-season to show his kicking skills, was an immediate sensation, and kicked two-for-two in field goals, four-for-four in extra points and almost won Lafayette game . . . Is an American "Hungarian Style" kicker . . . Was high school soccer player at Hanover Park Regional . . . Has range of 35 to 40 yards, kicks off to end zone . . . General Agriculture major.

FOOTBALL'S FIRST GAME

Plans still are indefinite, but it is anticipated that ground-breaking ceremonies for the National Football Hall of Fame will be held Oct. 15 in conjunction with the Rutgers-Army game. It has been since 1949 that Rutgers has been the site for the Hall and at last it appears that a building to house the memorabilia of the sport and to serve as a focal point for the promotion of amateur football is about to be constructed.

Rutgers was chosen as the site for the Hall of Fame because the first official inter-collegiate football game was played on the ground where the Rutgers Gymnasium now stands on Nov. 6, 1869. There were 25 men on a side and goals, rather than touchdowns, determined the winner. Rutgers won the inaugural, 6-4.

It is interesting to note that William J. Leggett, captain of Rutgers first team, later became a distinguished clergyman of the Dutch Reformed Church. His counterpart, William Gunmere of Princeton, later became chief justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

Football people are proud that so many of the game's standout players become standout citizens. It is their firm belief that football is one of the prime contributors in molding the character and personalities of our future leaders.

PRINCETON PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 22; Lettermen Lost: 17

Replacing Stas Maliszewski, Paul Savidge, Ron Landeck and Charley Gogolak won't be easy, but if anyone can do it, Princeton can. The Tigers have 22 lettermen on hand and always seem to have the depth necessary to fill in for departed stars.

Dave Martin and Bob Weber probably will share tailback and speedy John Bowers may give more punch at wingback. Up front, Coach Dick Colman will be relying on Bill Gloyd, Homer Ashby, Lee Hitchner and Lynn Brewbaker to be the strong men.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Princeton 32, Rutgers 6

Although dominated in the game, Rutgers did a reasonable job of defending the potent Princeton single wing, but could not keep the Tigers out of field goal range. Charley Gogolak kicked six-for-six, from 27 to 52 yards. Princeton "marched" only 36 and 14 yards for its two touchdowns.

After falling behind at the half, 16-0, Rutgers scored on Jack Callaghan's pass to Bob Brendel in the third quarter, but Princeton's "toe" got back into action again and it was all over. Princeton outgained Rutgers, 374 to 216, with Ron Landeck running and passing for 158 yards. Callaghan passed for 113 yards for Rutgers.

YALE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 25; Lettermen Lost: 20
Yale figures to be a sophomore-junior team in 1966, with much of the offensive workload expected to fall on talented sophomore Brian Dowling, who gained 1,200 yards as a freshman quarterback and completed 43 of 75 passes.

Coach Carm Cozza, in his second season, feels he has more talent available although he must rebuild his offensive line. Last year's undefeated freshmen, plus returnees Court Shevelson, halfback, Don Barrows, fullback, Bob Kenney, end, and Capt. Bob Greenlee, tackle, could give the Elis improvement over last year's 3-6 record.

LAST GAME (1936): Yale 28, Rutgers 0

Yale used passes, particularly to its All-American end, Larry Kelley, to score its 12th consecutive win over Rutgers in the renewal of a series which had been dormant for 46 years. Kelley caught a pass for the first Eli touchdown and continued to befuddle the Scarlet defenders all day. Offensively Rutgers, which had a 1-6-1 record during the year, never threatened.

LEHIGH PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 17; Lettermen Lost: 12

Lehigh has been down the last few years, but Coach Fred Dunlap, in his second season, is expecting to reap the benefits of a hard year of experience and solid recruiting. The sophomores give encouragement and there are some reliable veterans returning.

Newcomers labeled as probable starters are Rich Laubach, quarterback; Ron Matalavage, fullback; Ray Snyder, halfback; and John Miller, linebacker. Top veterans are Co-captains Dick Bauer, guard, and Rich Pochman, end. Jon Rushatz is a good runner and Rich Miller a good receiver.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 6, Lehigh 0

Rutgers outgained Lehigh, 347 to 164, but a 0-0 tie appeared inevitable as the last minutes rolled around. Rutgers missed a field goal with 1:20 to go and all hopes appeared lost, but Lehigh couldn't run the clock and the Scarlet got the ball again on its own 43 yard line with 60 seconds left.

After three passes ate up 28 yards and 32 seconds, Fred Eckert hit Bob Stohrer on a crossing pattern in the end zone for a spectacular victory. Jack Emmer got the Scarlet's third interception of the day in the last seconds to protect the win.

ARMY PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 16; Lettermen Lost: 16

Trying to figure Army at this point is a difficult assignment. Tom Cahill took over in the midst of a very unusual changeover and has brought in just about a completely new coaching staff. However, the outlook is far from dismal, with a good group of returnees plus the graduates of a fine plebe squad which compiled a 6-1 record.

Linebacker Townsend Clarke is the key man on defense and a possible All-America choice. Other standouts include end Tom Schwartz, tackle Don Roberts and defensive back Don Dietz. The major question is quarterback, where the job may fall to Steve Lindell or Jim O'Toole, who led the Plebes.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Army 23, Rutgers 6

Army moved to its scores in quick bursts early to take a 16-0 lead, whereupon Rutgers, late in the second period, marched 62 yards in 12 plays to put a touchdown on the board.

The next quarter-and-a-half was all Rutgers, as the Scarlet missed a field goal and was stopped by Army's stout defense on the three-yard line. Army scored its final touchdown after recovering a fumble on the Rutgers six with less than three minutes to go.

COLUMBIA PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 17; Lettermen Lost: 15

After last year's 2-7 record, Coach Buff Donelli is looking for better take-charge from quarterback Rick Ballantine plus help from the freshman team to bring about a more respectable record. Donelli calls his 1966 team "young, with potential."

Guard Dick Flory, an All-Ivy selection, could be the top lineman. Sophomores Mike Busa, honorary frosh captain, and Jim O'Connor, could get early chances in the offensive backfield, where help is needed. Youth and lack of depth could be a severe problem for the Lions in the early going.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Columbia 12, Rutgers 7

On the strength of a blocked punt and pass interference, Columbia defeated Rutgers in a game marked by sputtering offenses on both sides. Rutgers took the lead in the second quarter, capitalizing on a blocked punt of its own, as Ralf Stegmann scored from the one and Jack Hohnstine converted for a 7-0 lead. The Lions retaliated with less than a minute to go by blocking a punt and with 15 seconds left, Rick Ballantine passed to John Burns for the score, but the kick was blocked.

The Lions got a lift out of a 3 and 27 pass interference call on the first play of the fourth period and went on to score on Jim Songer's plunge to win the game. Rutgers had the ball on the Lions 32-yard line as the final gun sounded.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 23; Lettermen Lost: 14

In the third year of what has become a very successful rebuilding program, Warren Schmakel probably will field the "largest, biggest and fastest BU squad in many years," to quote the Terriers' spring practice prospectus. Headed by quarterback returnees Tom Thornton and Bob Kobus, the letterman list covers every position on both units.

The only spot left weak by graduation is fullback, where Bill Murphy and Pete Hayes are gone. However, 225-pound newcomer Jim Whittorf could be the answer. Many sophomores were playing regularly for Schmakel last year and an improvement on last year's record, especially with graduates of the 5-1 frosh team, is anticipated.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: B.U. 30, Rutgers 0

What was billed as a close game became "no contest" early as the Terriers capitalized on two fumbles and an interception to score three first half touchdowns and then added a fourth quarter score on a go-yard march. B.U. also scored a field goal.

Dave LaRoche scored the first three TDs, two on runs and one on a pass from Tom Thornton. The final score came on a Bob Kobus-Jim Donahue toss. Rutgers gained only 158 yards to 355 for the Terriers.

LAFAYETTE'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 27; Lettermen Lost: 7

Losing only seven men through graduation and with 18 of his top 22 players returning, Coach Ken Bunn is expecting improvement in 1966. The key player is Capt. Gary Marshall, who sparked the team by throwing eight touchdown passes in four games last year.

An improved offensive line, an entire returning defensive unit and strong passing and running could end Lafayette's underdog days.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Lafayette 23, Rutgers 18

Two touchdowns and a field goal were packed into the last 3:42 in as wild a game as ever was played. Rutgers marched 76 yards for an easy first quarter score by Don Riesett, but then began to sputter. There was no more scoring until Lafayette took the lead, 8-7, on Gary Marshall's passes to Gerry Facciani for the TD and conversion in the 3rd quarter.

Bill Messick gave the Leopards a 15-7 lead in the fourth period, but Rutgers tied on Chet Ward's TD and Jack Callaghan's two-point run. Then Jim Dulin, at 13:13, booted a 30-yard field goal for what appeared to be an 18-15 Rutgers win. But Marshall hit three passes, the last to Dave Brown for 54 yards, to pull out the win for Lafayette with 38 seconds to play.

HOLY CROSS PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 17; Lettermen Lost: 18

Mel Massucco, a new coach last year, now has several new, full-time coaches to help him and is hoping to find Jack Lentz as ready and able to run the Crusaders as he was in 1964 as a sophomore. An excellent runner, Lentz gained 802 yards two years ago, but was lost for the entire year when he tore a knee ligament on the fifth day of practice last fall.

In addition to Lentz, other expected standouts will be end Pete Kimerer, the captain, and center Dick Grise. If holes at tackle can be plugged, Massucco is expecting improvement over last year, although the Army opening and the ensuing difficult schedule won't make things easy.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Rutgers 14, Holy Cross 0

Neither team displayed much offensive punch, but after a scoreless first half, during which the Crusaders missed two field goal attempts, Jim Baker ran the second half kickoff 95 yards and Jim Dulin kicked the point. Thereafter, until a late fumble gave Rutgers the ball on the two and Don Riesett scored, it was a battle of punters. Bob Brendel of Rutgers and Charlie Farrell punted 23 times.

COLGATE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 22; Lettermen Lost: 12

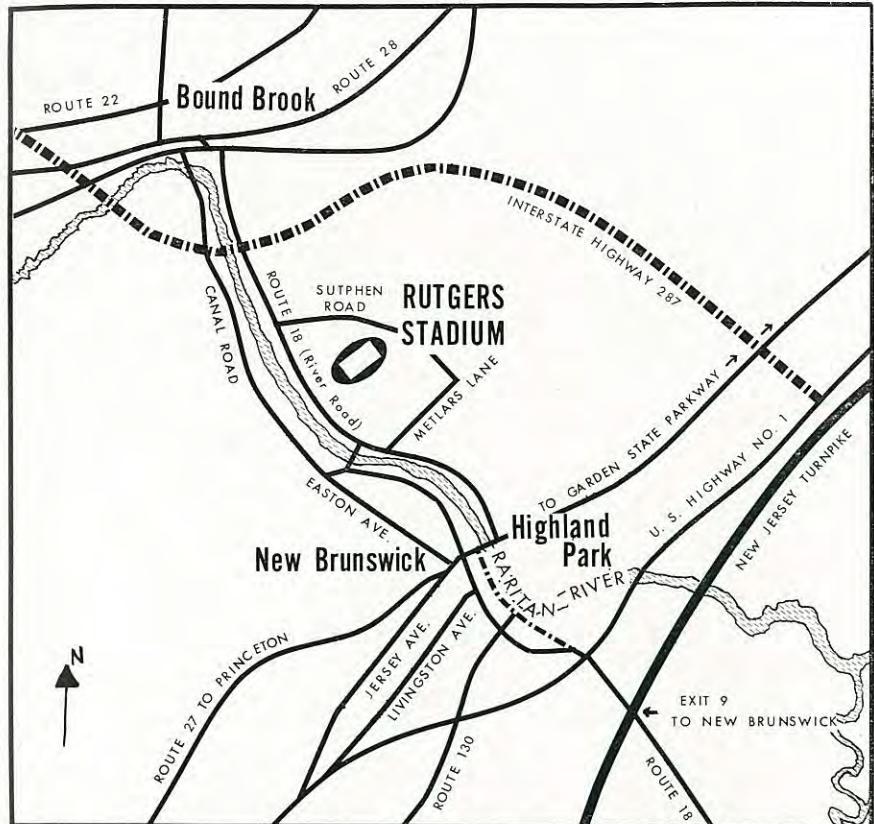

Very few of the 1965 leaders will be missing from the Colgate lineup in 1966. The one exception is in the defensive backfield, a strong point the last several years. The Red Raiders have one of the best linebackers in the east in Ray Ig, the captain, and one of the strongest runners around in 220-pound Marv Hubbard.

Coach Hal Lahar always emphasizes defense and appears well equipped to do that again. Offensively, much will depend on how ready Bob Mark is to be the full-time quarterback. Last year, he split the chores with the departed Buff Platt.

LAST YEAR'S GAME: Colgate 24, Rutgers 10

For most of three quarters, Rutgers kept pace with Colgate. Larry Stankovitz' early field goal for the Red Raiders was overcome by Rich Capria's second period TD for a Rutgers lead at the half, 7-3. Ray Ig scored on an intercepted pass in the third period and the count was tied by Jim Dulin on a subsequent field goal, 10-10.

Then the Red Raiders began to wear down the Scarlet. A 64-yard drive culminated on the first play of the final period with a Marv Hubbard TD and a few minutes later, Buff Platt scored on the end of a 62-yard drive to give the Maroon the victory going away.

NOTE: It is recommended that Route 287 be used whenever possible—look for "Rutgers Stadium" exit. This route by-passes all city traffic.
